

I understand that the Consumer Bankers Association has decided to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I am writing in opposition to any weakening of the law. If these banks want to contact the citizens of Indiana, they can do it by old-fashioned mail.